They are then required to determine the common forms of evidence that are found at this crime scene. The final grade includes several parts. There are discussion questions each week, a weekly quiz and four written assignments. The four assignments are a paper dealing with eye witness testimony, a paper review of a criminal case that was solved through forensic evidence, a time line power point that revolves around the written paper case where the student prepares the evidence as if they were presenting it to a prosecutor and finally a paper that requires students to research the Ohio Revised Code and find the elements of the crime.
